

Speciality Doctor - Acute Medicine

Fixed Term (Full Time) / London - United Kingdom / £31,841 - £50,068 / Vig - 003

Summary

This post will combine duties with dedicated time on the Acute Medical Unit, Acute Assessment Unit and Acute Respiratory Unit. In these wards, you will be working closely with Pharmacy, OPAL team and other multi-disciplinary teams.

There will be support given to obtain competencies as per AIM and GIM curriculum including specialty experience in Intensive Care Medicine, Respiratory Medicine, Cardiology, Elderly Care, Infectious Diseases and other areas that are relevant to the respective training curriculum. Regular training sessions to achieve core knowledge will be arranged. You must have wide experience in General (Internal) Medicine and be comfortable in the initial assessment and on-going treatment of acutely ill adult medical patients with a wide variety of pathology.

Requirements

MBBS or equivalent

Full GMC registration or in process

Advanced Life Support certificate

MRCP Part 1

Clinical Experience

Minimum of 36 months General Medicine Training

At least 6 months experience in Acute Medicine

Must have 12 months experience in a substantive SHO post or equivalent experience

Evidence of safe, sound clinical practices